iRobot Roomba

From $199

Keeping your floors clean can be a seriously backbreaking task. If you're anything like me, then you love a spotless home but hate doing the hard work. The Roomba solves this problem!

The Roomba is a compact, lightweight, robotic vacuum that works independently to perfectly sweep your dirty floors. With just the press of a button, the Roomba cleans your floor while you sit back and watch your favorite shows. You can even use the app to schedule it to clean while you're out enjoying a glass of wine with your friends.

No more pushing around heavy machinery, no more tripping on cords, and no more back pain! Let Roomba do the hard work while you enjoy life.

This Christmas, wrap up a Roomba so that your friends and loved ones can say "goodbye" to their dust bunnies for good!

Smart Home Device

From $22

Do you want to increase your home's IQ? Make your home smarter with an Amazon Alexa or Google Home device. Smart home devices help you stay organized, productive, and safe in your own home.

These compact devices come with your own personal voice assistant that answers questions, calls your loved ones, and even helps you make dinner. Best of all, they can control and manage hundreds of smart devices such as your lights, cameras, TV, and thermostat.

Not confident with technology? No problem. Everything is voice activated so all you have to do is talk. No buttons, no fine print, and no complicated instructions to read.

This year, be smart and give a smart home device!

Tile Item Tracker

From $39

Are you tired of losing things and constantly looking for those items that always seem to slip away? “Where are my keys?” “Have you seen my phone?” Put those days behind you with a Tile tracker!

The Tile tracker is a small device that easily attaches to virtually any item without being bulky or difficult to hold. Simply download the Tile app and input your tracker’s information to easily be able to see where your item is at any given moment.

With a variety of different styles and shapes, there is a Tile tracker for every beloved item that you don’t want to lose.

The next time you hear someone complain that their keys have gone missing (again), just get them a Tile tracker.

AirPods

From $159

These days, everyone is looking for a good pair of headphones and what looks cooler than a pair of AirPods? Whether you're jamming to music, catching up on a podcast, or listening to an audio book, wireless headphones are the way to go! AirPods come in a variety of shapes, colors, and prices to fit everyone's personal preference and budget.

Wireless headphones boast the same practicality of wired headphones without the headache of untangling them or constantly having to replace them due to wear-and-tear.

This holiday season, spare the hands and nerves of your loved ones and get them a pair of AirPods.

Ring Doorbell

From $99

See who's at the door with just a quick look at your phone. The Ring doorbell camera allows you to see what's going on outside your front door by just peeking at an app.

All you have to do is install the Ring Doorbell on your front door and download the app onto your smartphone. From there, you'll be automatically alerted when there is movement at the front door. No need to worry about your house when you're away, and no need to get up when there's an unwanted visitor.

This Christmas is a perfect time to give the gift of safety and convenience to someone you love with the Ring doorbell camera.

Apple Watch

From $399

Do you have a watch that only tells you the time? Why, when you can have an Apple Watch that does so much more. Besides being a smartwatch capable of doing many things that a smartphone can do, it also has critical health benefits. The Apple Watch can detect if you have fallen and can contact emergency services and your loved ones on your behalf. It tracks your heart rate and your heart rhythm, making it ideal for those with heart conditions.

The Apple Watch also helps you get in shape. It can track your steps, calories and will encourage you to get up and move if you've been sedentary too long.

This Christmas help your loved ones stay safe and healthy by giving them an Apple Watch!

Kindle

From $59.99

I love reading but I hate carrying books around with me. If you're a reader like me, then you can probably sympathize. Also, who really wants to stand in a long line at the few remaining bookstores to buy a new book? The Kindle solves the problem!

With a Kindle e-reader device, you can keep your entire library on a compact device that can comfortably fit into your purse or bag. It has a glare-free touchscreen display and a built-in screenlight so you can read in your bed at night without turning on a light.

Looking for something that can do a bit more? Kindle also offers tablets that can let you download apps, surf the web, and play music, videos & games. A Kindle is a holiday gift that everyone will enjoy!

Amazon Gift Cards

Any Price

Look, we get it, buying a gift for someone can be difficult. So, if all else fails this holiday season, you can't go wrong with a good ol' gift card. Sure it's not the most personal gift you can buy, but hey, who doesn't like to choose what they actually want.

As Amazon has become one of the most convenient platforms for shopping for all ages, an Amazon gift card is a great option when you just don't know what to get someone.

Along with the extremely wide range of selections available for purchase, fast/free shipping, and low prices, these gift cards are highly recommended for those extremely picky people on your Christmas list. Additionally, Amazon gift cards can also be used to make purchases on the Kindle Store.
